

APPLIED SCINTILLATION TECHNOLOGIES

AST LOCATION – HIGH QUALITY FACILITIES WITH EXCELLENT COMMUNICATION & TRANSPORT

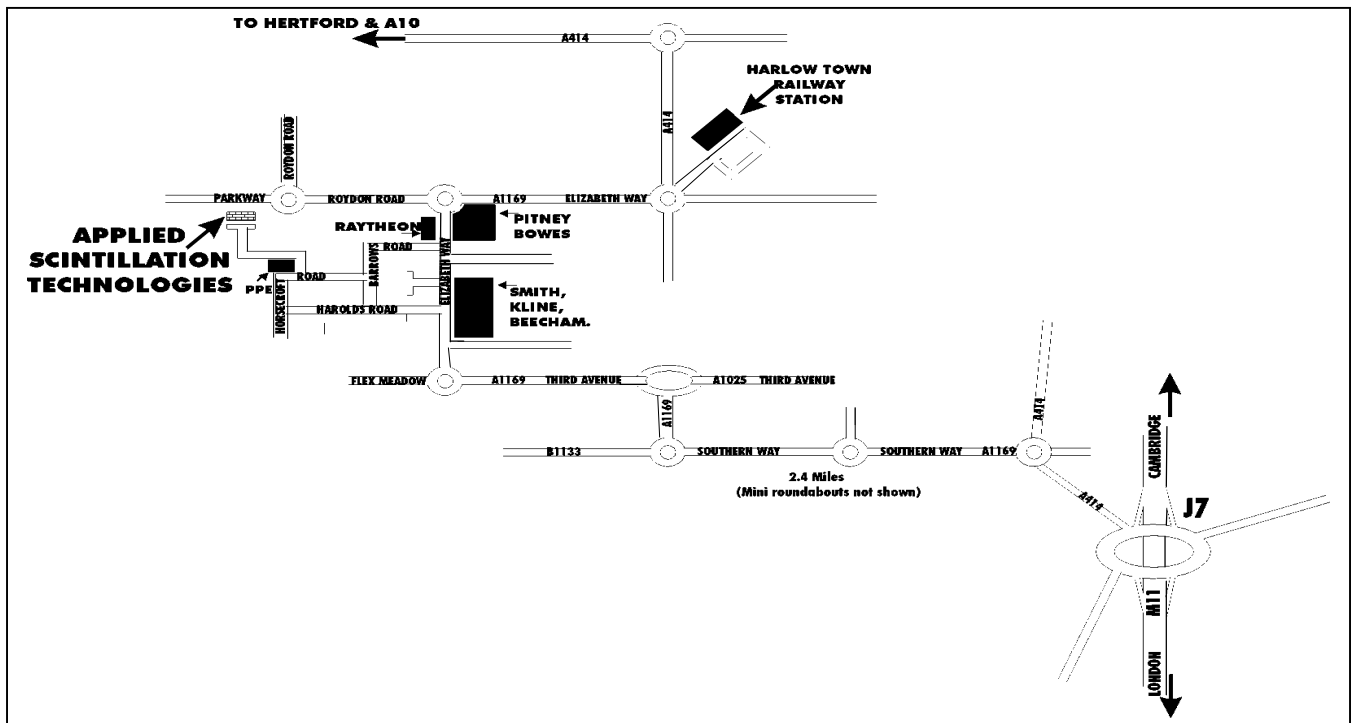

AST Location

Located in Harlow, AST's custom designed laboratory and manufacturing facilities are ideally placed between the commercial centre of London and the innovation and technical centre of Cambridge.

Rapid road and rail communications allow easy access and interaction with our partners in UK while close proximity of 4 airports – particularly London Stansted – facilitates communications with our expanding international customer base.

Within Harlow, AST is situated in the technical & industrial park close to the rail link and along side such internationally recognised companies as Smith Kline Beecham, Pitney Bowes, Raytheon and Smith's Aerospace.
